GREAT HALL IN WHICH CONFERENCE FOR FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN WILL BE HELD

It is now time to realize that the great Armory in Louisville is prepared to have a number of rooms which can be used for small sectional meetings during the Conference of Farmers and Business Men and that it is quite close to the Auditoriums of the Seelbach and Henry Warfson Hotels. There will be no lack of space in the Armory itself or in its large hall-ways, for all the demonstration work that will be used. In fact so many huge events have been handled by the Armory that there is no danger of crowding.

FRUIT IN THE SOUTH

All over the South the papers are having much to say about the awakening of the people to the value of fruit that has fine flavor. Northwestern fruit has been beautiful to look at on the fruit stands in the big cities, but a very small proportion of it has survived in the shade of trees watered by the Southern sun. Apples from Georgia lately took a number of first and second prizes in the Great New York exhibit in New York State, and Kentucky apples shipped to the Northwest also took a great many prizes.

As this is true it is especially fitting and opportune that the Conference at Louisville, April 7-8-9-10, is to have Mr. W. M. McDonald, manager of the Excelsior Fruit Growers' Association of Minnesota, to give a talk and make some demonstrations. Mr. McDonald was originally an expert bookkeeper in Minneapolis, but finding that his health was breaking under close office work, he decided to go to the country. He at once took hold of the Excelsior Fruit Growers' Association and in five years pushed the business from $5,000 annually to $200,000. This man will organize a typical fruit growers' association among the horticulturists at the meeting, and show them methods of shipping, packing, advertising and the location of markets.

When asked about the prices which prevailed when he took hold of the organization and those prevailing last year, he said, "When the Association was launched 75 cents per case of 24 pint baskets of red raspberries prevailed. Last year our red raspberry cases of the same size averaged $2.05. Of course, to get such prices one must have a perfect pack and first-class fruit. Every fruit grower in our Association has his number and the dealer orders through the number and upon the reputation of the Association for fair dealing."

Would a Delegation Pay?

A SOUTHERN LEADER

Hon. T. F. Peck, of Tennessee.
At this Conference in Louisville most of the Commissioners of Agriculture from the Southern States will be present, either to speak or to take part in the general discussions that are sure to follow the papers that are given. Among the earliest to slightly hint of being on hand early and staying late is the progressive Commissioner of Tennessee, the Hon. T. F. Peck.

THE PROGRAM

During the Conference of Farmers and Business Men at Louisville, April 7-8-9-10, there will be discussions and demonstrations of the following:

BREEDING FOR FALL CALVES

Good Fresh Air is of great importance to give young animal strong, vigorous constitution.

GR. G. L. MARTIN, South Dakota Agricultural College.

The best results in raising fall calves are clean airy well ventilated, sunny pens. Young calves never do well in damp dirty quarters. A good fence made of cement or cork brick well bedded with short straw, shavings or sawdust to absorb the liquid manure will facilitate cleaning and keep the calves warm. A wood floor lies fairly well if the joints are laid closely and then treated to a coat of creosote to prevent the absorption of liquid manure, otherwise wood is very insalubrious. A floor of earth is practically useless as it cannot be kept clean and sanitary.

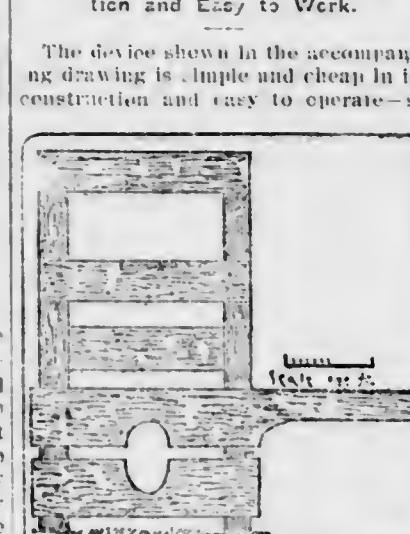

Good fresh air in the calf stable is of great importance with the young calf to give it a strong, vigorous constitution and strong vitality. The calf will be the dairy cow within two years as it good productive dairy cows are expected the calf needs to be kept strong and thrifty from the start.

Sunshine is very necessary to the vigor of all young growing animals. It is an excellent germicide and for that reason serves to purify the surroundings and to keep the young calf healthy. It is always well to place the calf pens in a part of the stable where plenty of direct sunlight may enter.

The advantages of raising fall calves continue in the fall, they are ready to be weaned in the spring and can be put out to pasture where they will continue to grow. On the other hand, when calves are dropped in the spring they are ready to wean in the fall about the time winter sets in so are liable to go through the winter without seeking much growth. In the fall is all means the best time for dairy calves to come, both from the standpoint of the calf and profits of the owner.

By nailing boards to the pillars on both sides in the rear a small chute may be formed by means of which the hogs may easily be driven in and trap.

Entered at the Greenville, Ky., post office as second-class matter.

A COMMITTEE to a preliminary report given out by the Director of the United States Bureau of the Census, 20,235,320 miles of telephone line were in use in the United States during the year 1912. This represented an increase of 313,2 per cent during the decade. In 1912 the Bell system controlled 74.7 per cent of the wires and 58.5 per cent of the telephones. The estimated number of messages or calls for the year was 13,735,638,245. This figure does not include messages for the 1,402,842 telephones of small companies which had an income of less than $3,000 during the year. The messages reported by the Bell system included only completed calls, while those reported by other companies may include some "line busy" or "do not answer" calls.

Planned medical examinations for everybody, as means of detecting and checking disease in its earliest stages, were earnestly advocated by Dr. Victor C. Vaughan in an address on the subject of preventive medicine before the seventh annual meeting of the Association of Presidents of Life Insurance Companies. Looking into the future, the speaker told of the time when "everybody goes to a physician twice a year and undergoes a thorough examination." The result of this examination is stated in a permanent record, and no two consecutive examinations are made by the same physician, in order that a condition overlooked by one may be detected by another. Cases of doubt, or in which there is difference of opinion, are referred to special boards. Dr. Vaughan endorsed the proposal that the insurance companies offer their policyholders free medical re-examination at stated intervals; a plan that would probably benefit the companies financially through the increased longevity of the insured.

Notice to A. S. of E. Members.

The County Union of the A. S. of E. will meet in regular session April 2nd and 3rd at the Court House in Greenville. All locals are requested to elect delegates to be present as business of importance will come before the body for consideration.

We had hoped to be able to make complete settlement for the 1913 crop of tobacco by that time, but owing to the dry weather in March tobacco is not stripped. Our delivery has been very satisfactory indeed, and if members will do their duty there is no reason why we should not be able to control the entire crop this year. Therefore we hope all locals will have a full delegation at the County Union.

The County Secretary informs me there has been no settlements made by the local secretaries for the 1914 dues. The County Union voted a penalty of 10 cents on the quarter. The Secretaries will please report their locals to the County Secretary that they may save this penalty.

Kentucky's Writers.

Book Club in American Letter, 1891, by John Wilson Townsend, two volumes, forty pages each, with an introduction by James Lane Allen. Price per set $2.00. The Record Press, Covington, Ky.

In these two excellent volumes, but recently issued, Mr. John Wilson Townsend, of Lexington, gathers together the history of Kentucky letters, beginning with John Filson, the State's first historian, in 1784, and coming down to the year 1912.

In perusing this work, especially the second volume, one is struck with the number of names appearing therein with which most of us are familiar—names of men and women of the present school of writers whose work may be found in various novels issued within the past few years, or seen between the covers of the current magazines, and he is surprised to learn that many of these writers of note are natives of Kentucky.

Mr. Townsend is admirably equipped for the work which he has done, having spent a number of years in gathering data from many sources for his book. To the student and general reader alike will this work appeal, for herein historian, novelist, poet and playwright who are natives of Kentucky find their places. Of each Mr. Townsend gives a biographical sketch, followed by an extract from the subject's work, thus preserving for future generations many interesting biographies and excellent specimens of writing that doubtless would otherwise have been lost.

In the early days of the Commonwealth, before printing became the simple process it is at present, the making of a book involved much labor and expense, and for this reason few books were printed and, as a rule, the editions were soon exhausted. Of this we have an example in the books written by James Weir, who was born in Greenville in 1821 and died in Owensboro in 1866. His "Lion Powers," published in 1850, soon became exhausted, and now probably less than half dozen copies are in existence. And so with many other good books. For that reason the material preserved in these two volumes will ever increase in value.

Among other well known men and women who are represented in the first volume are: John Filson, the State's first historical writer, Gilbert Inlay, the first Kentucky novelist, Rev. Adam Rankin, author of "A Process," the first book every printed in the State, Thomas Johnson, Jr., Kentucky's first poet, Henry Clay, most famous Kentucky statesman, John James Audubon, the great ornithologist, Lewis Collins, Kentucky's historian, Theodore O'Hara, author of the "The Bivouac of the Dead," James Weir, author of "Lion Powers," George D. Prentiss, poet and wit, and first editor of what has since become the Courier-Journal, Mary J. Holmes, novelist, and Henry Watterson, America's greatest journalist.

In the second volume appear the Kentucky writers of more recent time, among them: James Lane Allen, Nancy Huston Banks, Robert Burns Wilson, Young E. Allison, Ingram Crockett, Eliza Calvert (Hall) Oberchain, author of "Aunt Jane of Kentucky," Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, Mrs. Annie Fellows Johnston, author of the "Little Colonel" stories, John Fox, Jr., maker of Kentucky mountain stories, Madison Cawein, named by English critics the greatest living American poet, Mrs. George Madden Martin, author of "Emmy Lou," Crittenden Marriot, James Tandy Ellis, George Horace Lorimer, editor of The Saturday Evening Post, Alice Hegan Rice, of "Mrs. Wiggs" fame, Maria Thompson Daviess, author of "The Melting of Molly," Hale Young Rice, Hallie Erminie Rives, Irvin S. Cobb, America's greatest living humorist and the man of the hour in literary circles, Edwin Carlisle Litsey, Leigh Gordon Gilmer, Will Livingston Comfort, Charles Neville Buck, and many others.

Mr. Townsend's work is a worthy one, and all Kentuckians and every lover of good literature will appreciate these two volumes, for through them the reader is brought into closer touch with the men and women who have gained for Kentucky an enviable place in American letters.

Sunday Sch. of Conference to be held at C. Fraley, April 2-3.

The Louisville Conference embraces about one half of the state of Kentucky, and in this territory, many of the leading pastors and Sunday School workers will meet to discuss the problems of the Church in this trial and difficult activity, and the most important trials of the Sunday School work. Some of the most prominent Sunday School workers of the M. E. Church, South, and also some International Sunday School workers will be on the program.

Every pastor and Sunday School Superintendent is a delegate ex officio, and each Sunday School should have beside the pastor and superintendent, one regular delegate.

There has developed the most reckless and bold actions in the matter of placing poisoned meats around town. Tuesday morning, about 8 o'clock three or four pieces of meat were found on the pavement in front of the Old Inn and the Savings Bank, and an examination was found to be duped with stricholine. In many yards all over town meat of this kind has been discovered for the past week or two, but it had been placed at night. This is the first time that "bait" has been found on the pavement, and they were placed in day time, as the paces had been swept only a short time before the discovery was made.

Cow Makes Fine Butter Test.
Mr. J. E. Coombs had the pupils of the high school make a test of too pounds of milk from a 10-year-old Jersey cow, and the remarkable showing of 7 pounds of butter was made. This is the highest test that has been made here, and is up in the fine ribbon class, as half that amount is considered fair.

The series of protracted services to be conducted by Dr. E. G. B. Mann at the Methodist church will begin on Sunday, March 29. Dr. Mann is one of the leading evangelists of Kentucky, and has been engaged lately in some of the most remarkable revivals. Our people will welcome him here, and the congregation is hoped will be large from the beginning.

There is wholesale poisoning of dogs in town now, and while every effort is being made to apprehend the poison spreaders, there has been no clue secured. Doped meat is being used, and at least a dozen dogs have thus been killed during the past few days. It is supposed by some that the work is being done by persons who have had their dogs killed, causing a spirit of retaliation, and a determination to make the crusade a complete one by removing all dogs.

NOW STRONG ON THE MAP

Greenville Becomes Important Postal Center on a Jump.

Greenville is stronger on the map just now than ever before in its history, all brought about by a magazine cover. The "Woman's World," published in Chicago, and having a circulation of more than 2,000,000, carries on the April number a front cover showing a woman of rare beauty, in pleasing, thoughtful mood, induced by the contents of a letter which she has read, and holds in her hand, the envelope being held in her other hand, and showing this address: "Miss Dorothy Bennett, Greenville, Ky." The same illustration, reduced, is used in a story in the magazine, "Penmanship and Courtship," and it appears that the picture and name are taken to be real, from the number of postcards and letters that are being received here for the young lady, as they are coming in bundles, and from all parts. There are a very large number of men who take this woman's magazine, or else every woman has sons or brothers, for an addition will have to be made to the office to care for these missives, unless there is a let up.

If there were such a girl here, it would be a question of which she would accept, as all sorts of love messages are being received. In addition to this, there have been a few wagon loads of the magazines sent here, from over half the States of the Union, as bundles had lost their wrappings, and postal clerks and postmasters have taken the address on the cover to be genuine, and so have sent bundle after bundle here. One package was returned three times, until Postmaster Poole wrote a letter to the postmaster of the office through which the magazines should be distributed, and asked him why he persisted in returning the bundles here wrongly. There is somewhat an element of romance in the affair, and Dan Cupid is at work strenuously, but there is one vital element missing—the girl. Mr. Poole sees nothing but worry and trouble in the tangle, and will be glad when it is all straightened out—it never is.

Rain yesterday put a temporary stoppage on farm activities, though the moisture was not out of place at all.

Calomel, Calomel, you cannot stay for LIV-VER-LAX has shown us an easier way. Ask G. E. Countzler.

There have already been a few cars sold in the county, with fine prospects for a heavy business this season.

We invite the readers' attention to the review of "Kentucky in American Letters," by Mr. Harry M. Dean. It is a splendid appreciation of a most worthy work, and should be read by all.

Good morning! Selected your garden seed yet?

Be sure and bring your friends with you to W. A. Young's Millinery opening to see the latest styles in hats, April 1 and 2.

The Methodist Sunday-school hung up a new record last Sunday, with an attendance of 227; this is a splendid showing, but will be passed next Sunday, if the activities of those interested produce the results expected.

If you want anything in finish for furniture or interior woodwork, we have it.

For the latest and noblest hats go to W. A. Young's opening April 1 and 2.

Town House and Farm for Sale. I have a 40 acre farm, house and outbuildings, 2 miles East of town, and my 5 room residence on Hopkinsville street, for sale.

M. B. McDonald.

There will be a Bible School Convention held at the Christian church here, day and night, April 7 and 8, at which there will be representatives from the various Bible Schools of the 18th district. All Bible school workers are invited to be present. There will be special programs, and each session will be instructive and helpful.

The prohibition forces are planning to call elections in Daviess, McCracken, Henderson and Christian counties on the same day, and petitions are being circulated in all these counties now.

Contract Let for New Home.

Mr. Wm. Drake last week let the contract for his new home, to be built on Hopkinsville street, on the lot adjoining Mr. W. A. Wickliffe's residence. Mr. John McClelland was the successful bidder, at a sum around $5,000, the plans providing for a modern building, brick veneer first story and stucco second story, steam heat, hardwood finish, etc. Work will be started at once, and the home will be ready for occupancy during the summer, and will be an ornament to the group of nice homes in that section of the city.

Rev. J. S. McKee, of Soddy, Tenn., will be here the latter part of the week, and will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening, and everyone is invited to attend the services.

Revival Services Begin Sunday.

The series of revival services will begin at the Methodist church next Sunday. Dr. E. G. B. Mann will be the preacher, and Mr. W. B. Yates, of Marion, will conduct the singing. Both are well known men, and have been working together with great results for some time. Everyone is invited to attend these services, and to assist in the work.

The many friends of Mr. Harry Poole here will be glad to know of his splendid showing in his work and studies at State University, where he is taking the Agricultural course. This is his third year, with only one more to go, and in a class of 53 he is ranking right up at the head, his term grades being so high that he is taking but few examinations.

Mr. Will P. Longest is home at Powderly on a visit, and is混ming with old friends here. He came up from Galveston, where he is now located, and has a three months' leave of absence. His ten years' service in the army has been spent in greater part in the Philippine Islands.

FIRE INSURANCE

To Our Patrons and the Public:

We will continue to write Insurance as heretofore, notwithstanding a large majority of the companies have ceased writing business in the State. We are enabled to care for your business in legal reserve companies authorized to do business by the State.

A Bad Bluff.

The insurers who enter the conference to day should stand up in the knee and the backbone. The world is not coming to an end because of the withdrawal of the insurance companies. Of course, the companies refuse to take part in the conference. They are playing for the whole hog, and the more they can scare the insurance buyers the better they conceive their chance to win. The Glenn Bill should never have been passed, but as yet it has hurt no insurance company, and the fact that the companies leave the State months before the law becomes operative and refuse all solicitations for conference is evidence enough of their plan. They propose to boycott Kentucky, not only to have their way in this state, but in order to bluff the rest of the country against insurance regulation. They are entering on dangerous ground when they make this fight nation-wide. It is a bad time for any monopoly to invite the attention of the Federal power.

Whatever may be the policy of the insurance companies at present,

Kentucky will find a way to insure its property and the nation will show that there is a way to deal with the game the insurance companies are seeking to play.—Courier-Journal.

Have You a Liver?

IF SO USE LIV-VER-LAX
Read Following Statement From Prominent Greenville Druggist

We have recently received a large shipment of GIBBSY'S LIV-VER-LAX, the liver medicine which we recommend above all others. When troubled with constipation, or a disordered liver, do not take calomel or other harsh medicines to purge the system, but let us supply you with a bottle of LIV-VER-LAX on our personal guarantee. That is, if it does not do all that we claim for it, and if you are not perfectly satisfied we will cheerfully refund your money. A sluggish and inactive liver is the cause of most all diseases. Keep your bowels open and liver regulated with LIV-VER-LAX and you will not be sick. LIV-VER-LAX is purely vegetable, is pleasant, safe and effective, and is good for grown-ups and children all alike. We have unbounded confidence in LIV-VER-LAX, is why we recommend it so highly. We believe LIV-VER-LAX has given more universal satisfaction than any other liver medicine we have ever sold.

Keeps Healthy Bowels

The first rule of health is daily called attention to by every doctor in the land, whose first question to his patient is almost invariably is, "Are your bowels regular?" Yet there's not one person in fifty who takes sufficient care of the bowels. And the result of this foolish neglect is nine-tenths of all ill-health. If you are constipated, don't let that condition occur again tomorrow. Unless your bowels can carry away the waste products of fevers, appendicitis, and many other serious diseases.

When you are constipated, there is a right way and a wrong way. The wrong way is to take harsh purgatives, which even though they do clear the bowels, cause griping and nausea, injure the delicate tissues, and derange the normal functions as to cause the return of constipation. The right way is to help Nature to produce natural movement, without pain or discomfort, by using

Rexall Orderlies

More Than One Hundred Million Were Sold Last Year

This enormous quantity was used with good results by busy men who suffered from constipation, due to lack of exercise, or indigestion caused by overwork—by old people whose systems cannot stand anything harsh—by women during pregnancy, and after childbirth, when any medicine would be particularly dangerous. Many of these people are your neighbors and friends. Ask anyone who has ever used them, they'll tell you Rexall Orderlies satisfied and helped them.

a gentle laxative in the form of a chocolate-tasting tablet. One of these tablets eaten just before going to bed will help to restore your bowels to normal activity at a time when your body is at rest, the medicine can do its best work.

of taking that tablet (or say two, if your case is obstinate), your bowels will move easily and naturally in the morning. The use of Rexall Orderlies for a few days afterward will restore normal regularity. Even chronic constipation is benefited by them, and it is not necessary to continue the treatment for a long time, because, instead of driving Nature, they simply help her to help herself.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores and in this town only by us. Invest pocket boxes, 10c, 25c, 50c.

This Is Our Guarantee—
You Risk No Money

If Rexall Orderlies do not make your bowels act right, tell us so and we'll give back your money without asking a single question. There is no red tape to this guarantee. It means just what it says. You sign nothing. We won't hesitate, or ask you any questions. Your word is enough. If Rexall Orderlies do not do all you expect them to do—if you don't feel better after using them and find that they are the pleasantest-acting and best laxative you have ever used, we want you to tell us and get your money back.
